Here and There

SOME CONFUSION HERE

... we live in the solar system of the Milky Way in which the centre is the sun. The sun has a large diameter of 864,000 miles and is 8.3 kiloparsecs from the earth. — Theoretical and Natural Science, 10, 79–84, 2023.

OUT OF THEIR DEPTH

A way to augment existing power dam infrastructure, particularly during droughts, is to have floating solar systems on reservoirs. — Victoria Times-Colonist, 2023 December 23, p. A10.
